

I do not wish to have Indiana's Telephone Privacy law changed or weakened. I do not wish to have any bank disturb my privacy at anytime of day, if I need to get in touch with a bank I'LL CALL THEM. This is just another way for banks or other commercial enterprises to abuse rights and privileges of individuals. Let them find other ways to market their services which are not so intrusive.